

California State University, Los Angeles

California State University, Los Angeles (Cal State LA), with a student population of over 28,000, is a comprehensive, urban university located in the heart of the city. Since 1947, the University has transformed the lives of students from across Greater Los Angeles and around the world, and has graduated over 245,000 alumni. Cal State LA offers over 60 graduate and undergraduate degrees in diverse subject areas and has been recognized by U.S. News & World Report for the quality of its business, engineering and nursing programs. The University is home to multiple prominent centers and institutes, and offers 130 student clubs.

Among many other accomplishments and notable points, Cal State LA is:

- #1 in student upward mobility in the United States (New York Times)
- Minutes away from Downtown Los Angeles, Hollywood, mountains and beaches
- Happy to welcome hundreds of international students each year who are served by our International Programs and Global Education office
- Expanding student housing and dining commons
- Home to a top-seeded NCAA soccer team

Tracey Truong – International Outreach Advisor/DSO

ttruong@calstatela.edu

323-343-3170

www.calstatela.edu