BE A PART OF SOMETHING BIG.

Becoming part of the Red Raider family is more than just wearing Red and Black, attending sporting events, or joining student organizations. It is the discovery of who you are. The broadening of the mind and of the spirit. It is the ability to express yourself freely. To explore new cultures, make new friends, and engage in new experiences. It is the roar of Red Raiders as the Goin' Band plays the fight song, and the sound of victory bells on campus. It is the feeling you will have dressed in your cap and gown as you pose for the iconic graduation photo in front of the TTU seal. This is the spirit and tradition of Raiderland, and it is what you will remember long after earning your degree!

LUBBOCK

YOUR CITY. YOUR CAMPUS. YOUR HOME AWAY FROM HOME.

With a population of over 255,000, Lubbock has all the conveniences of a major city and the friendliness and warmth of a small town. Known as the “Hub-City,” Lubbock has its own international airport and is only hours away from other metropolitan areas providing easy access to family and friends. Texas Tech is an integral part of the community and has been described as one of the ten most beautiful college campuses in the U.S. An inclusive and welcoming West Texas spirit creates a home away from home for international students.

“If there was one thing I would advise anyone coming into the U.S based on my experience, it would be to keep an open mind. Be willing to try the food, meet new people, and most importantly, explore. Never forget that there are so many people rooting for you; the struggle you have today was the struggle of someone else yesterday so remain inquisitive- ALWAYS ASK QUESTIONS, because from here, it really is possible.”
