How to Prove English Proficiency

Options for Proving English Proficiency	Score Required for Direct Admission	Score Required for Conditional Undergraduate Admission*
TOEFL IBT/Home Edition (code: 5496)	80 or higher (minimum of 18 in each subscore)	50 or higher
IELTS Academic	6.5 or higher (minimum of 6.0 in each subscore)	5.5 or higher
PTE Academic	62 or higher (minimum of 53 in each subscore)	45 or higher
Duolingo English Test (2021 only)	110 or higher (on the current DET scale)	85 or higher (on the current DET scale)
NC State Intensive English Program	Successful completion of level 6

Conditional undergraduate admission: If you meet the competitive academic requirements for undergraduate admission but do not meet the minimum English proficiency requirements, the NC State Intensive English Program allows you to improve your English skills before starting a degree program.

Test Score Consideration

Students Outside the U.S.

If you are completing high school outside the U.S., ACT or SAT scores are optional. If you choose to submit your scores, they must be sent directly from the testing agency.

SAT college code: 5496 ACT college code: 3164

Students in the U.S.

If you are completing high school in the U.S. and have not attended a U.S. high school since grade 9, you are required to submit one of the following scores for English proficiency: TOEFL, IELTS Academic, PTE Academic or Duolingo English Test.
