“The education I received from Whitworth prepared me to be a competitive applicant for medical schools. The courses I took were rigorous and comprehensive, which made my Medical College Admission Test preparation less tough.”

- HARIKA ECHURI '18, CHEMISTRY MAJOR, INDIA

INVEST IN YOUR FUTURE

RESEARCH OPPORTUNITIES

Undergraduate research is a priority at Whitworth. Collaborate with faculty members and students on cutting-edge research to cure diseases, work on projects for NASA and present at professional scientific conferences.

INTERNSHIPS

Gain experience in your field of study and make important professional connections. Our career services and internship staff will guide you through the process.

POST-GRADUATION OPTIONAL PRACTICAL TRAINING (OPT)

International students are eligible to apply to work for one to three years in the U.S. in their degree field to further their professional experience. Ninety-nine percent of Whitworth grads who applied in the past five years were approved for OPT and secured full-time positions.

GRADUATE SCHOOL

One hundred percent of Whitworth international student alumni who applied to graduate schools between 2015-20 were admitted to one or more programs in the U.S. and other countries. Recent admissions include Georgetown University, Tufts University Medical School, University of Oxford, London School of Economics and University of Glasgow.

CENTERED ON STUDENTS

Whitworth wouldn't be what it is without students from around the world. International students can expect to be active members of the campus community and find meaningful ways to connect and integrate.

INTERNATIONAL STUDENT SUPPORT SERVICES

INTERNATIONAL STUDENT ORIENTATION

Meet your fellow international students and prepare for living and studying at Whitworth with this extensive orientation before school starts.

AIRPORT ASSISTANCE

Whitworth provides airport information and assistance to all new students arriving in Spokane.

OFFICE OF INTERNATIONAL EDUCATION

The OIE offers comprehensive support and advising services.

RESIDENCE HALL LEADERS

Each residence hall houses cultural-diversity advocates (CDAs) and resident assistants (RAs) to help international students become active in their living communities.

INTERNATIONAL PROGRAMMING

Programs and activities throughout the year promote cultural sharing and learning and foster an inclusive campus environment.

SECURE CAMPUS, SAFE COMMUNITY

Students' safety and well-being is our highest priority. Whitworth is ranked as one of the safest schools in the United States. We provide:

- › 24-hour security
- › Safety orientation for international students
- › Free transportation to campus at night
- › Keyless and tamper-proof locks for residence halls
- › Emergency stations throughout campus

“The Whitworth Honors Program has taken me through a diverse set of learning experiences that have included honors teaching assistantships, research with faculty, honors courses within my majors and an honors internship. The experience has added so much depth to the understanding I have about healthcare and has prepared me well for graduate school.”
